Allegro moderato

(The clerk seizes a key from the rack and darts out. The steady, elderly couple stare at each other in faint surprise.)

Allegro moderato

way I'll show you your rooms

Allegro moderato
Dear est Ma ma, I am writing for I'm lonely and distressed. I am staying here in Leadville without Harvey by myself. Everything is over.
a man so powerful that he could give me anything and make me like a princess in olden days. Ah (ah)
Tempo
Primo

And so I waited hoping some day he would come.

Dear est

Tempo
Primo

AI 34
moment we're together we both know it had to be.
But dear Ma-ma he's not free to marry. It is wrong for us to feel the way we do. I know he...
a tempo

B.D.

a tempo
poco rit.

(She sighs and signs it)

poco rit.
Augusta appears at the head of the stairs. She sees Baby alone at the writing desk.

loving daughter Lizzie.