

Teck Resources earnings report helps depress TSX; TMX group to merge with LSE <small>7 / 8</small>	Canadian dollar little changed against greenback, oil, copper prices decline <small>8 / 8</small>	Afghan enrolment claims fail to make grade; school numbers don't add up <small>1 / 8</small>	Rights and Democracy chief insists future is bright for his organization
---	--	---	--

Photos: Tony C., Wycliffe and friends — a broadband celebration

Posted on Wed, Feb 9, 2011, 11:24 pm by Staff Writer

Tony Clement gave new meaning to the term "bandwidth" on Tuesday when he took part in "Manhattan on the Rideau," a jazz master class delivered via CANARIE, a Government of Canada-supported broadband network. The broadband video conference jazz masterclass was taught by legend Wycliffe Gordon.

Email This Post

Tweet 1

Like Be the first of your friends to like this.

FIND OUT MORE AT CBA.CA

b CANADIAN BANKERS ASSOCIATION

iPolitics is grateful to the following sponsors:

mcmillan Grey, Clark, Shih & Associates

HILL & KNOWLTON Creating Impact CANADA 2020

Economic Indicators

S&P/TSX	13784.30	+0.00%
CAD/USD	1.00	N/A
Oil	89.58	+0.16%
Gold	1318.40	-1.10%
DJIA	12239.89	+0.06%

2011-02-09 16:23

- Most Read | Most Emailed
- Morning Brief - Feb. 8, 2011
  - Morning Brief - Feb 8, 2011
  - Poll suggests Canadians overwhelmingly favour integrated border with U.S.
  - RCMP boss's abusive behaviour long standing, senior Mountie says
  - Question of the day: Will Ouimet show? And the answer is ...

Question of the Day

Do you support the mandatory minimum sentences proposed by the Conservatives in Bill S-10?

Yes.
 No.
 Unsure.

Vote

View Results

• Question of the Day Archive

iPolitics Tweets
iPolitics.ca

iPoliticsca In today's Morning Brief: The rules of biofuels; Hot seats on the Hill; Cool jazz, a cold skate, and, mmm...Beaver Tails. <http://su.pr/248YBt>
28 minutes ago · reply

BTBReviews @iPoliticsca Fear and Loathing on the Canadian Campaign Trail '11 <http://tinyurl.com/5s5nr...> Share, RT, comments welcome!
4 days ago · reply

katieolver RT @BTBReviews: @iPoliticsca Fear and Loathing on the Canadian Campaign Trail '11 <http://tinyurl.com/5s5nr...> Share, RT, comments welcome!
4 days ago · reply

ustarclassics RT @BTBReviews: @iPoliticsca Fear and Loathing on the Canadian Campaign Trail '11 <http://tinyurl.com/5s5nr...> Share, RT, comments welcome!
4 days ago · reply

cfhorgan I wrote this: Should access to the Internet be a human right? <http://tinyurl.com/5s5nr...>

twitter Join the conversation

The most important email of the day.

Wake up to the iPolitics Morning Brief.

- Recent Articles
- Financial Literacy report leaves out one thing
  - Afghan enrolment claims fail to make grade; school numbers don't add up
  - Morning Brief - Feb. 10, 2011
  - Rights and Democracy chief insists future is bright for his organization
  - Loblaws tests consumer desire for socially responsible foods
  - Lobbying commissioner ready to discuss Ulyat investigation
  - Lawrence Cannon's chief of staff slapped with ethics fine
  - Photos: Tony C., Wycliffe and friends — a broadband celebration
  - Transgender protection bill approved by Commons; faces fight in Tory senate
  - Mandatory minimum sentences won't help offenders or the public: experts iPolitics is independent, non-partisan and committed to providing timely, relevant, insightful content to those whose professional or personal interests require that they stay on top of political developments in Ottawa and the provinces. Working in a spirit of neutral inquiry, our daily news service will include coverage of the legislative, regulatory, political and policy developments that matter most to businesspeople, professionals, politicians, public servants, political activists and the more politically-aware.